David Dason (to All): 1:07 PM

Can you explain the difference between SharePoint and OneDrive?

Walter Koop (to All): 1:10 PM

There is also Business Basic Standard and Premium?

Rich Greaves (to All): 1:10 PM

@Walter exactly right

Chuck Tanzola (to All): 1:14 PM

Is it true that files stored in One Drive reside both on your local machine and also on the cloud @ Microsoft?

Kathie Cahill (to All): 1:16 PM

are there items which reside in both One Drive and SharePoint?

Ashwin (to All): 1:18 PM

@chuck OneDrive will be stored in cloud/Data center owned by Microsoft you can access it remotely from anywhere and it also stores a copy in your local machine but you have install OneDrive application to access it if the document is on my OneDrive and I have shared it to SharePoint, will edits in One Drive be saved in SharePoint?

David Dason (to All): 1:20 PM

Jay Walters (to All): 1:21 PM

Can you have a company shared list of contacts in Outlook 365?

Peter (to All): 1:26 PM

How does Microsoft Teams fit in with SharePoint & One Drive?

Byron Holloway (to All): 1:29 PM

Can SharePoint documents be synchronized locally? In one drive you can select "always keep on this drive" but I don't see a similar option for SharePoint.

Ashwin (to All):

@Byron there is a SharePoint sync tool which you can install and use it in your laptop to access the documents in the local machine.

Janniffer (to Organizers): 1:31 PM

Can anyone outside of your organization (different email address other than your company) be added to a Team and/or Channel?

Janniffer (to Organizers):1:31 PM

"Membership" was mentioned. I don't understand what Richard meant by that.

Aparna Sproelich (to All):1:35 PM

I see that Customer Manager will be disabled today. What will replace it?

Conley Mark (to All):1:42 PM

How is MFA turned on?

Byron Holloway (to All):1:43 PM

When I turned on MFA. All the notifications came to me as the administrator, not to the user.

Ashwin (to All):1:47 PM

@Byron you need to make some changes in the security configuration we can take this offline

Chuck Tanzola (to All): 1:53 PM

What are the advantages of downloading the native Office applications on iPhones, if any?

Janniffer (to Organizers):1:54 PM

Is there link that can be shared on how to create a company calendar that everyone can access? Right now I only see my personal calendar.
