Conley Mark to Everyone

Is Electronica even going to happen "live" this year?

Me to Everyone

@ Mark Conley - the last I checked the website for electronica - yes it does still seem to be happening in person.

Chris Straube to Everyone

I just saw the CES is going virtual

Conley Mark to Everyone

there is a great opportunity to improve revenues with a virtual conference as many companies can have more team members attend the virtual event than the live event (ie: offer rep firms a "group rate" to attend the virtual).

good point Mark!\

Robert Logan to Everyone

Thank you so much for your comments Mr Bellerio!

Tobi Cornell to Everyone

Thank you everyone!
